

Restroom Access Card

Restroom Access Required

The holder of this card has a digestive condition that requires immediate access to a restroom. Thank you for your understanding and kindness!

The Restroom Access Act:

Also known as Ally's Law was passed in the state of Illinois in 2005 to ensure that people with certain medical conditions have access to employee-only restrooms when a public one is unavailable. Since then, 15 other states have passed similar laws.